I have been working in retail at the Co Operative for 6+ years where I've thrived in all areas of a superstore and become confident working in fast paced environments

This has allowed me to frequently practice customer service, my communication skills, and my ability inside retail & sales because I'm dealing with customers daily.

Alongside this I have my own service based business as a digital marketer helping online business owners with client acquisition and growing their business for the past 3+ years

This has allowed me to learn skills such as social media strategy, content creation, copywriting, and many more abilities inside Sales & Marketing

This is where I've built my strong work ethic and desire to succeed in what I do

Willing to relocate: Anywhere
