EXPERIENCE:

WATTS MARKETING

April 2026- Current

- Demonstrated exceptional resilience and stamina by maintaining an upbeat, enthusiastic attitude while successfully handling 100s of warm calls daily.
- Proven track record of sustaining high energy and focus over long hours and extended shifts, ensuring the final call of the day was delivered with the same quality as the first.
- Thrived in a highly competitive, fast-paced environment, fluidly thinking on my feet to navigate customer questions and consistently smashing daily conversion targets.
- Engaged with warm leads to build rapid rapport, successfully processing customer applications and converting initial interest into qualified appointments.
- Delivered top-tier customer service by solving problems efficiently on the spot, ensuring every customer received a premium experience despite high daily call volumes.
- Utilised strong verbal communication skills to explain service benefits clearly, maintaining a confident and ambitious approach to meeting performance goals.
- Maintained sharp attention to detail over extended shifts, accurately and promptly updating the CRM system with detailed customer notes and appointment schedules.
- Consistently met and exceeded key performance indicators (KPIs) related to call quality, lead conversion rates, and daily outreach volume.

THE OLD MILL, PUBLIC HOUSE

May 2025- May 2026

- Managed daytime operations independently, ensuring the pub ran smoothly during quieter service periods.
- Trusted to run the pub entirely alone during some shifts when no senior management were present, taking full responsibility for service, customer experience, and day-to-day operations.
- Opened the premises each day, preparing the bar area, setting up tills, stocking fridges, and ensuring the venue was clean and ready for service.
- Took responsibility for the floor during service, including running food to tables, clearing plates, resetting tables, and ensuring customers received prompt and friendly service.
- Maintained high standards of cleanliness across the bar and seating areas, ensuring tables were clear, cutlery was wrapped, and all bar cleaning tasks were completed.
- Provided efficient customer service, taking orders and serving drinks while maintaining a friendly and welcoming environment.
- Built strong rapport with regular customers, creating a positive atmosphere and encouraging repeat visits.
- Monitored stock levels, restocked fridges and bar supplies, and reported low inventory to management.
- Followed licensing laws and responsible alcohol service guidelines at all times.

TECHNIQUE HOSPITALITY AND CATERING COMPANY

November 2023- Current

- In this job I have learnt great adaptability and flexibility and this is because I have worked in many different establishments for various amounts of time and have had to quickly adapt. This has very much helped my confidence within a workplace and this is because I have had to work in many different environments, this has helped to strengthen my communication skills.
- This also helped me with multi tasking, this is due to working in very fast paced and busy environments.

This has very much helped my confidence within a workplace and this is because I have had to work in many different environments, this has helped to strengthen my communication skills.

- This also helped me with multi tasking, this is due to working in very fast paced and busy environments.
- During my time with this agency I have worked in garden centres, racecourse events, I have worked with wedding companies and on board a first class train (The northern belle), This is where I was taught silver service which enhanced my confidence and broadened my experience in customer interactions.
- This job has also enhanced my bar knowledge as I have worked on bars and had to do alcohol services during events and weddings that I have worked, I have basic bar training and I have supervised a bar previously.
- This job has taught me to deal with many different customers and this is because I have worked in a range of places doing different events these range from birthday parties, weddings, renewal of vows, funerals, garden centres, festivals- at each of these events the consumer age and lifestyle is different meaning that different styles of customer service is necessary to correspond with customer satisfaction.
- This job has taught me that customer service is important because it is used in every industry- in any job the way you interact with the public is important and due to the nature of this job I have worked with many different individuals, which means that I have built stronger customer service skills
- During this job I have also been temporary replacement for a barista, meaning that I have basic barista training and have knowledge of using a coffee machine.
