I'm a jack of all trades and proud of it, I pride myself on being able to learn adapt and thrive. I spent the first portion of my professional life, working different jobs, trying other things and working out what I wanted to do, gaining and picking up many skills along the way.

I'm now looking to find a career and a company I can sink my teeth into and see myself at for years to come.

Willing to relocate: Anywhere

Work Experience

Time off due to death in the family

May 2025 to Present

Sadly last year my dad died, along with being his next of kin and being the person who had to wrap up all of his affairs the whole thing hit me pretty hard.

I ended up taking some time out to spend with my daughter and lived off some of my inheritance for a bit.

I did work from October til end of December as a temp worker for the Royal Mail over the Xmas period, but I'm now looking to get back into work full time with a clearer head and find somewhere I can put down some roots

Grounds Maintenance Operative

Norwich city services limited-Norwich

March 2026 to May 2026

I am currently working at Norwich city services limited,

My current role includes, spraying, ride on and push behind mowers, strimming, hedge cutting and all the usual things that come with grounds.

It's a temp contract until all spraying work is completed

Grounds Maintenance Operative

Flagship Housing Group-Watton

May 2024 to May 2025

Currently working as a GMO for flagship housing services.

Me and a partner maintain a round with over 25 sites.

Over a 2 week period our job is to visit each site, keep weeds down, make sure grass is cut, and hedges and bushes are kept in check and everything in between.

Have my Pa1 and pa6 spraying ticket

Full Stack Development

Tech Educators-Norwich

March 2024 to June 2024

I attended a 3 month intensive full-stack boot course for 3 months.

we looked at various different programming languages, from basic fundamentals such as HTML, CSS and Javascript, to more industry-standard stuff such as React and Next js, while also looking at databases and how to build them with superbase and deploying websites with Vercel.

Trainee Manager

Digital Phone Company Limited-Various

November 2023 to March 2024

I worked full time at the Digital Phone Company,

We're a phone company that focuses on providing a service to smaller market towns that the larger Company's don't operate in.

Have a variety of duties, from using our customer data base to update customers of deals and opportunity's to upgrade or get a new phone,

We handle sales which were targeted on, which so far since being here I've hit target every month.

It's a very customer facing role, that requires an understanding of DPA and handling of sensitive documents and an ability to talk and communicate with customers

I left this role due to being unable to commute to the store they decided to stick me in after probation.

Back Injury

N/A

November 2022 to November 2023

In November of 2022 I sadly suffered a serious back injury that left me pretty much immobile for the best part of 6 months before intensive physio over the following 6 months allowed me to then get to a position where I could return to work

Short Term Gardener

Jamies Home and Garden

June 2022 to October 2022

Worked short term as a gardener and Ad hoc carpenter, was a short-term contract to cover other staffs holidays and sickness.

worked alone and in a team at different sites, either working day projects, such as installing astroturf, decking or landscaping work also worked independently on gardening round, working out of a van driving round completing whatever work the clients need or wanted to do in there booked time slots

Butchers Assistant

Shaw farms-Colchester

November 2021 to June 2022

I worked at shaw farms as a butchers assistant during the game season, my main role was the butchery of various game animals such as Pigeons, partridge, pheasants and duck.

I would also help out with various other tasks such as making sausages and burgers and helping package and label the food for sale

Grounds Maintenance Operative

Tivoli-Marham

May 2021 to October 2021

I joined the Marham grounds maintenance team on a temp contract,

My duties include strimming, leaf blowing, cutting grass using push and ride on mowers.

I was part of the team responsible for keeping the main base and airfield in a smart and presentable way

Unemployed and looking for work

March 2020 to August 2021

due to a unique blend of events (Brexit and the Covid Pandemic) I was let go from my job due to the business needing to downsize.

So I've spent the last few months doing odd jobs and part time jobs.

I've done gardening work for neighbours, a few days labouring and even did a a month working nights at tesco on click and collect, I've done everything i can to keep busy and working in this hard and difficult time.

Sales Executive

Steel masters LTD

February 2018 to March 2020

I worked for Steel-Masters LTD in a sales capacity. My job has various different parts to it. From assisting and helping drawing up minor technical drawings. Ongoing maintenance of our entirely paper stock system, tracking items both in-going and outgoing.

I also deal with sales and invoicing of the customer, from taking the phone call, along to completion of the sale.

I also deal with customer liaison and dealing with suppliers directly.

Sales Advisor

GAME

August 2017 to February 2018

I worked For Game in a retail capacity, My job was to sell to customers and make sure they not only have a great shopping experience, but leave happy knowing they were well informed and got the product that was right to them.

Video games are something im very passionate about, and since my first month at the job, thanks to already having sales and retail experience i've been able to hit and exceed all sales based targets given.

My duties involved, Cash handling, customer service, Reviews and testing of both Mobile phones and Games consoles, Upselling Various Cares that we offer, Booking in and Management of incoming stock.

Bar Manager

Turtle Bay-Norwich

August 2016 to August 2017

I started turtle bay as a barman and through hard work and a love of the job have moved into a bar manager position. I've been a Part of the team that set up the bar from opening and we have been turning over in excess of 50k+ per week so it's been busy.

Once becoming Bar Manager it was my job to rota and effectively use the staff, to keep the bar stocked up and all outgoings accounted for, I was also expected on occasion to step into the kitchen and help out there when needed either helping prepaid starters or help on the grill.

Working at Turtle Bay it was really important to maintain a lively atmosphere, motivate colleagues and keep customers happy, remembering what is important, Rum, Reggae and Jerk. I found it easy to work at turtle bay because of the relaxed attitude where personal and professional development is not only encouraged but essential.

Mooring Attendant

Ferry Inn

April 2016 to September 2016

Upon my return to work, I secured a part time position at a busy broads pub during high season. Working as a mooring attendant, my job was the organization and upkeep of the moorings, pulling in boats, managing other staff and writing rotas. The most important part of the role is to remember you are the first face that customers see when entering the establishment, as such I had to represent the business with a friendly and approachable demeanor.

Shop assistant

Pets at Home

June 2014 to September 2016

I worked at pets at home for part time, while looking for full time employment my duties were the upkeep and facing of the shop, making sure the store was appealing to customers and passers by. I worked with customers both on the shop floor and the tills, building on experience gained from Grooms Bakery giving me a working knowledge of the day to day running of a more modern shop, also realising that I enjoy talking to a variety of people, and providing a polite and enthusiastic service, and was praised for being a great multitasker who follows instructions well.

attractions supervisor

Dinosaur Park

March 2014 to June 2014

at the dinosaur park, I was responsible for the care and welfare of guest, both adults and children, the cleanliness of the park, its general upkeep, supervision of attractions and safety of the general public, working at the dinosaur park I learnt to work with a much larger team of colleagues, and a far wider variety of customers.

Skilled labourer

Modular Pipe Organ Solutions

February 2013 to June 2014

This was my second labouring job, however it taught me an entirely different skill set. Restoring organs up to 200 years old requires, elements of carpentry and working incredibly carefully and to a high level of precision also building on teamwork and communication skills.

Baker/Shop Assistant

Grooms Bakery

August 2012 to February 2013

I worked at Grooms bakery as a summer job which extended into winter due to high work performance and positive outcomes for the business, I first worked in the bakery (back of house), my job was to assist in day to day operations, which included the making of cakes (I was responsible for the preparation of over 15 different cakes and pastry's), packaging of products, labelling and recording incoming orders for the next day. I then worked as a shop assistant serving customers, money handling and exchange and being a polite and approachable face of the business.
