Work Experience

Reception Supervisor

The Ivy Collection-Norwich

December 2021 to Present

As reception Supervisor I am responsible for a team of 5-8 people. I am a good communicator responding to high levels of phone calls and emails everyday. This job has given me experience in slack and google workspaces as the bulk of my job is online and responding to guest inquiries through phone and email and all our other branches through slack is vital to keep everything working to the same standard. I also assist our admin manager with tasks such as, orders, hiring, training and rota scheduling for my team.

Waitress/Bar Staff

The Lamb Inn-Norwich

January 2023 to August 2023

At the lamb I learnt about the busy environment of a sports and music pub. I worked every weekend so witnessed many football games and band performances, making drinks and serving tables while keeping a professional and quick service for everyone.

Kitchen Porter/Assistant

Oak Fired at the Royal Oak-Beccles, Suffolk

September 2021 to December 2021

Working as a kitchen assistant I assisted in keeping the kitchen clean and safe for food prep using my knowledge of food safety. I made dessert, plated starters and side salads making sure to present the food as standard.

Shop Assistant

Cards Direct-Lowestoft

September 2019 to September 2021

Working at card factory I was tasked with stocking the store, upselling our promotional items and serving customers. As my first job I learnt valuable skills in retail work and customer service.
