

Esmae Tamsin Jackson

Norwich, UK • (+44)7425899838 • Esmaetj@icloud.com

Highly organised, personable professional with a multifaceted background in customer experience, educational environments, and operational support. Skilled in creating warm atmospheres for both clients and staff members, valued as a key asset during team building and training exercises. Strengths highlighted through building rapport and resolving issues, using initiative beyond the role. Positive revenue within sale designs matched with positive feedback in training support and operational continuity.

Professional Experience

September 2025 – Present: Front of House Manager | The Cub |

- Manage front of house operations: First point of contact, registration cafe services and design team
- Provide excellent customer service to all parents, visitors and external professionals
- Full responsibility of the cafe area and additional client spaces, creating a high standard of presentation and service
- Perform administrative responsibilities, including bookings, enquiries, stock orders, record keeping and communication across teams
- Trusted to step up during recruitment processes and candidate selection decisions
- Taking initiative in site maintenance, including health and safety management and staff wellbeing

June 2025 – August 2025: Temp Summer Activity leader | United Adventure Camps |

- Activity lead in creative arts
- Ensure activities meet correct developmental milestones
- Feedback daily achievements to parents to promote children's confidence and talent
- Manage efficiency of activity timetables

February 2025 – June 2025: Part time assistant (Whilst attending University) | The hole in wand |

- Deliver entertaining, immersive customer experience in an interactive environment
- Combine skills of acting and customer service to achieve engagement and satisfaction
- Maintain operational flow to ensure enjoyment and safety for families and children

September 2025 – December 2024: Part time assistant (Whilst attending University) | Lindt |

- Deliver quality customer service, adapted to the customers' needs
- Supporting customer enquiries within a high paced retail environment
- Manage stock, merchandising and quality control
- Partake in bespoke gift wrapping for customers and display tables

April 2021 – March 2022: Deputy Manager | Set your sights |

- High surveillance, quality management of daily operations
- Key point of support for both children and staff
- Keeping up to date with the safeguarding, wellbeing and behavioral needs of Children
- Giving detailed feedback to parents upon collection

November 2021 – December 2021: Temp Christmas elf | Roy's |

- Quality entertainment for children and parents
- Reenacting key Christmas stories to ensure the quality of the experience feels real and immersive for children

November 2019– December 2020: Temp Christmas Elf/Store assistant | highway garden and leisure Centre |

- Customer service across retail and seasonal events
- Engaging with children and families to create memorable experiences
- Additional contracted hours after initial temp contract, to support multiple sales departments

Educational achievements

2022 – 2025

University of York | BA(HONS) Sociology and Education | 2:1

2020 – 2021

City College Higher education | Childhood and Youth studies | Certificate of higher education

2019– 2020

Oxbridge | Level 3 Childcare | A* CACHE Award

2017– 2018

City College Norwich | Musical theatre | Diploma

2012– 2017

City of Norwich School | English Literature (4) | English language (5) | Maths (4) | Science (3)

Skills

Strong Communication • Strong interest in development • Experience in Children ages Birth-10 • Conflict management • Confident Public speaker • Successful researcher of social and business trends

Activities

Literature • Art • Yoga • Pilates • Cooking