

Grace Madsen

5 Knights Yard, Beccles, Suffolk, NR34 9EF (07463947037) (grace.madsen03@hotmail.co.uk)

Personal Statement

Highly motivated and reliable person with excellent communication skills. Organisation and flexibility are key skills of mine with a passion for working with people. Confident working independently and as part of a team, keen to create success in all areas of work.

Education

- Leeds Beckett University, - Education with Teaching: 2:2.
- Liverpool Hope University, PGCE – Merit

Experience

Mermaid Fish Bar
(August 2020 - June 2021)

Duties Include:

Taking orders for food and drink face to face and over the telephone.

Serving the public.

Having the responsibility to use the cash register, take payments, give change.

Working peak hours, remaining focussed when exceptionally busy.

Swimming Coach - Beccles Kingfishers March 2017 - May 2019 (stopped to focus on revision for GCSE's) November 2019 – March 2020 (finished due to Corona virus)

Duties included:

Responsibility for managing a lane of swimmers from 6 to 10.

Giving instructions to swimmers regarding technique.

Motivating and encouraging others to persevere and develop resilience.

Demonstrated technique to swimmers.

1:1 support to develop specific techniques.

Flixton Buck – waitress and kitchen hand. (March 2019 – November 2019)

Duties included:

Taking orders for food and drink.

Serving the public

Preparing dishes in the kitchen.

Clearing tables, washing up and resetting tables

Significantly learned how to work under pressure, remain calm and to be organised.

Pakefield primary school teaching assistant – unpaid work experience (Summer 2018)

Duties included:

Supporting year 6 pupils in different areas of the curriculum, working with small groups in punctuation and spelling, maths problem solving and different methods.

Led a group within an after-school club to support preparation for SATs in Maths and English.
Supervising playground alongside the Teaching staff
Assisted in admin tasks including photocopying and recording some results on the computer.
Learned about school procedures, policies, code of conduct and behaviour management.

Clays LTD - factory worker (June 2021 - September 2021) (June 2024 – August 2024) (July 2025 – August 2025)

Duties included:

Adapting to different job areas

Having to meet strict deadlines

Working as part of a large team and being prepared to change tasks at any point in the day.

Flixton Buck - bartender (under new management)

(March 2023 - August 2023)

Duties included:

Working behind the bar and jobs surrounding this.

Taking on responsibilities including purchase orders, stock take and pricing.

General waitressing whilst working the bar when busy - multitasking.

Supporting when arranging events, e.g., searched and contacted food vans for beer festival.

Operating the cellar when needed, e.g., changing barrels over (sometimes under pressure when busy.)

Supporting younger workers during busier shifts.

Trained new workers behind the bar.

Earsham primary school teaching assistant (unpaid work experience)

(May 2023 - June 2023) (January 2024 - February 2024)

Duties included:

Supporting SEND children

Helping with various classroom activities

Supporting children in core subjects, particularly maths

Adapting to all year groups, despite placement being short.

Richmond House primary school (unpaid work experience)

(January 2024 - February 2024)

Duties included:

Supporting children during classroom activities

Sticking with a specific class to support them further

Supporting SEND students, particularly in maths

Pakefield primary school – teacher training (September 2024 – July 2025).

Duties included:

Learning to deliver high quality lessons to children.

Adapting to different needs to SEND, understanding the different levels of SEND and how to support these different areas.

Teaching a wide range of year groups
Balancing up to 80% teaching time with a degree.
Planning high quality lessons with meaningful activities to aid the children's learning.

Pakefield primary school – teacher (September 2025 – now)

Duties include:

Planning high quality lessons with meaningful activities to aid the children's learning.
Teaching high quality lessons to children full time.
Adapting to the different needs of a high level of SEND, making sure they are receiving the correct learning for their ability and meeting their targets.
Creating meaningful targets for EHCPs and making sure they are met.
Working with other members of staff to plan and ensure all duties are completed.
Working with families to ensure children are getting a meaningful education.

Reference's available on request.