

HANNAH LONG

Profile

What you will get from me as an employee is a warm, dedicated, passionate, hard working and eager to learn individual. I am always striving to better myself, develop new skills and improve how I work. I live by the motto that nothing is ever too much trouble and have and will always, look out for my colleagues. I pride myself on my work ethic, time keeping and ability to use my own initiative. I am looking for a role that I can get stuck in to with the potential in the future to progress and grow within the company.
