Company	Primark
Position	Sales Assistant
Period	February 2011 to June 2015

- Responsible for many various subsections of departments throughout my career as a retail operative.
- Promoted to full time member of staff, allowing me to deputise for my Department Manager on many occasions, such as the ordering of stock, visual merchandising of the Dept., organisation of staff throughout the trading day, completion of relevant documentation and stock adjustments using the computers provided in store.
- Supervision of the fitting rooms when necessary, checking the items of customers as they come in and out of the fitting rooms.
- Monitored my subsection for stock levels throughout the trading day and maintained decent fill levels.
- Trained for use on the Tills, but I am only used, if necessary, such as if the queue got large at the till point.
- Massively involved in recovery procedures, during and after hours of the store to ensure my subsection among others was recovered to a high standard.
- Received several 'Customer WOW Reports' in which a customer has provided positive feedback to the store via a survey about the service received to them by myself.
- Involved in the stores Charity Committee, to assist coming with up ideas on how to raise money for a specific charity.
- Trained for use on the Customer Service Desk, a role, like the Tills, has enabled me to develop valuable communication skills as it is heavily customer focus based in terms of dealing with customers on a one-to-one basis, or on occasions over the phone, when undergoing a refund or exchange transaction.
